In the "Garfield" comic strip created by Jim Davis, Garfield, the fat and lazy cat, shares a household with Odie, the energetic and good-natured dog. They both belong to Jon Arbuckle, their owner. The relationship between Garfield and Odie can be described as a mix of companionship, tolerance, and occasional rivalry.

Odie is the only other animal in the house, beside Nermal, who is a kitten. Garfield cannot comprehend Odie, even if he did make sense. Odie is far too stupid for Garfield to understand, like all dogs. Garfield understands cats and humans, he understands humans because he uses them.

Why is Odie the only animal in Garfield comics that can't talk?
