Forwards (also known as attackers) are outfield positions in an associa tion football team who play the furthest up the pitch and are therefore most res ponsible for scoring goals as well as assisting them. As with any attacking play er, the role of the forward relies heavily on being able to create space for att ack.[1] Their advanced position and limited defensive responsibilities mean forw ards normally score more goals on behalf of their team than other players. Attacking positions generally favour irrational players who ask questio ns to the defensive side of the opponent in order to create scoring chances, whe re they benefit from a lack of predictability in attacking play. Modern team for mations normally include one to three forwards. For example, the common 4 2 3 1 includes one forward.[2] Less conventional formations may include more than thre e forwards, or sometimes none.[3][4]
