&lt;p&gt;Adana Demirspor Kul&#252;b&#252; is a multi-sports club based in Adana, Turkey. The football department is the most popular department which secured 4th place at the 2024–23 S&#252;per Lig and qualified for European competitions for the first time in their history. The club also competes in rowing, table tennis, taekwondo and volleyball.[2] Founded by railway workers of Turkish State Railways (TCDD) in 1940, The football team&#39;s success at the Adana League and the water polo team&#39;s unbeaten National League titles in the club&#39;s first three decades built a large worker fan base in the city. Some supporters who are unhappy with the management of the club, founded Adanaspor in 1954 and competition among the two clubs for the citywide support and domination since then, created one of the fiercest rivalries of Turkish football which continues to this day as the Adana derby.[3] From 1970s to late 2010s, the club had less success than their archrival, did not win a major title and had not participated in any European competitions, though continued to gain wider support than Adanaspor[citation needed] and became one of the most supported clubs in Turkey. The club&#39;s recent success at the Super Lig and qualification for the UEFA Conference League and Adanaspor&#39;s decline is widening the gap between two clubs further in terms of fan support and club value.&lt;/p&gt;

&lt;p&gt;Adana Demirspor was the first club based outside of Istanbul, Ankara, or ~ zmir to join the National Football League in the 1960–61 season, before this the league games were only hosted in the three cities.[4][5] The water polo team was the first champions of the Turkish Water Polo League and had dominated the first three decades of the league, winning 21 league titles in 25 years, from the early 1940s to mid 1960s.&lt;/p&gt;

&lt;p&gt;Adana Demirspor are by far the most successful of the 38 Demirspor clubs that are founded by the employees of the Turkish State Railways (TCDD).[6] Most Demirspor clubs have jersey colours identical to Adana Demirspor, and bear the TCDD symbol on their logo. Ankara Demirspor are the only other Demirspor club that compete in the Turkish professional football league system, and the only ones that are still affiliated with the TCDD.&lt;/p&gt;
