Before this, the France nati onal football team was selected by a selection committee, a process in which the French Football Federation would select coaches and trainers from within the co untry or abroad to prepare the side for single games and tournaments, but with a Il decisions ultimately remaining under the control of the committee. From 1904 1913, the USFSA headed the committee, which was referred to as the Commission Ce ntrale d'Association. The committee was controlled by André Espir and A ndré Billy and featured little to no physical preparation for upcoming matc hes. In 1913, the Comité Français Interfédéral, a precursor to the French Football Federation, took over the committee following the USFSA b ecoming affiliated with the organization and secretary general Henri Delaunay to ok control.</p&gt; <p&gt;Following the creation of the French Football Federation, the committee was converted into a five-man board and lasted from 1919 1964. Gaston Barreau s erved as the head of the committee in two different stints; from 1920 1945, then , after four years, returned to select the team from 1949 until his death in 195 8. From 1945 1949, Gabriel Hanot headed the committee and, following Barreau&#39 s death, Paul Nicolas (1958 1959) and Georges Verriest (1959 1964) controlled t he committee until it was officially disbanded in 1964.</p&gt;
