A Seleção Brasileira will face Espanha in a friendly match, after their victory against Inglaterra. The match will take place on Tuesday, March 26, 2024, at 5:30 pm in Santiago Bernabéu Stadium, Madrid. This match will be an excellent opportunity for both teams to prepare for the upcoming tournaments and showcase their talents to the world.

Background and context
The Brazilian National Team is currently in Europe for a series of friendly matches, including the one against Espanha. The Brazilians are coming off a hard-fought 1-0 victory over Inglaterra, with Richarlison scoring the game's only goal. New coach Dorival Junior had a successful debut, bringing fresh energy and tactics to the squad. Meanwhile, Espanha has been experiencing mixed results in recent matches and will be looking to bounce back with a win on home soil.

Significance and Consequences
Both teams are gearing up for major tournaments and will be using this match as an opportunity to gauge their progress and identify areas for improvement. A win for Brasil would enhance their confidence and build momentum for the future matches. Conversely, a loss for either team could be a setback, but ultimately, both teams are focused on the long-term goal of performing well in their respective tournaments.

While the franchise's production team has largely denied taking inspiration from any real-life events, a massacre in 1960s Finland shares eerily similar details with the movies. These similarities have fueled speculation that this is where the story in Friday the 13th came from.
